Next TGIF on Friday
July 10 will be a
Marguerita Nite.

This is your big chance to collect
some of those neat little umbrellas.

Don't miss our big Pig Roast, July 18

Row, row, row your boat

Steve and Mike went a-fishin one sunny day. They rowed and rowed until they found a likely spot to drop the lines into the clear blue waters of Lake Erie.

Mike pointed the bow into the giant swells with one hand to try to keep the boat level so as not to spill his beer while Steve bent over the edge retching like a drunken sailor from sea sickness.

But it was not in vain. The fight was valiant and the battle was fiercely fought, but in the end it was the gallant men of the sea that triumphed over the angry waves and monster fish.

We had a good turnout at the TGIF on July 3. Burgs and Dogs were flying off the barby in all directions. The burgs were so good, even Tommy managed to down two of them and I think I saw him sneak one in his jacket pocket for the road..

Al got the cooking started and then quickly passed the flipper on to me when I accidentally wandered too close to the barby.

Scuttlebutt has it that Barb once flipped burgers at a McDonalds a few years ago.

Don't get too close to that barbeque Barb, you saw what happened to me.

Oink, oink, oink

Al is busy chasing down Porky with cleaver in hand, for the upcoming pig roast. This event is always a highlight for the club and always gets a lot of people out.

The food is always fantastic, the company is friendly and fun to be with.

Bring your friends and family to this exciting event. At $10.00 each, the price is a bargain for the feast that awaits you. The cost includes buns, butter, coffee, tea, hospitality and good looks.

We would really appreciate any salads or desserts that you can bring to help round out the fare.

The mirth and merriment starts at 5pm with the portly porker being served at around 6ish.

See you there. TTFN Harry....
